Check which EDIH in Croatia or the EU offers a programme relevant to your issue. Prepare a measurable process demonstration before making an enquiry and ascertain the centre's requirements.

When this is applied

Describe the current process, the volume of documents, privacy restrictions and the acceptable outcome. Request a precise scope of service, the level of involvement and what remains after the pilot.

What to do in practice

To compare the offers, create an identical matrix of costs, results and exportability.

A business example

A small manufacturer is seeking help to identify the cause of production stoppages. Prepare anonymised logs and measure the number of useful alerts, rather than choosing a tool based on its advertising.

Specific next steps

1. To compare the offers, create an identical matrix of costs, results and exportability.

Limits of application
