Proof of right of use before lodging an accommodation application · What if the process stalls?

For: Private accommodation host

Practical business guidance · Reviewed: 2026-11-22

Applicability: According to the profile and circumstances of the described case.

If the owner or construction details differ, first clarify the situation with the relevant authority.

When a plan meets an obstacle

Compare the owner, property and address details with those you intend to enter.

Prepare the solution, the right-of-use documents and the relevant information about the facility.

Working example · Proof of right of use prior to a request for accommodation

Check whether your case requires a special document or consent in addition to the basic documentation.

Specific next steps

1. Compare the owner, property and address details with those you intend to enter.
2. Prepare the solution, the right-of-use documents and the relevant information about the facility.
3. Only after checking should you invest in the equipment required by the chosen type of accommodation.

Limits of application

For household activities, by type of establishment, status and location.
