Applicability: 26 November 2026 at 16:00 – 27 November 2026 at 22:00, depending on the listed service

The Tax Administration has announced that electronic services will be unavailable from 20:00 to 22:00 on 27 November. Restrictions on some forms run from 16:00 on 26 November. According to the notice, receipt and eInvoice fiscalisation systems will continue operating.

What has been officially confirmed

The Tax Administration notice is dated 24 November 2026; this answer was checked on 27 November. For payments covered by the notice, JOPPD is submitted once the system is available, and such submissions are considered timely.

Example of planning a submission

A business plans to view received eInvoices at 21:00 on 27 November. Based on the notice, it chooses another time and checks whether the service is available again.

Specific next steps

1. Check the official list of unavailable services and your planned submission time.
2. Retain the documentation and the submission receipt once the system is available.
3. For JOPPD relating to salary and pension payments during the stated period, follow the special procedure described in the notice.

Limits of application

This is an official service notice, rather than a new regulation or a general extension of tax deadlines. Apply the restriction only to the listed services, period and circumstances.
