One session and multiple open applications · What if a process gets stuck?

For: Platform worker employed by a company

Practical business guidance · Reviewed: 2026-11-22

Applicability: According to the profile and circumstances of the described case.

If there are concurrent availability commitments, clarify the schedule before proceeding.

When a plan meets an obstacle

In advance, indicate which schedule the time belongs to and when you are available to which employer.

Record overlaps and breaks, without double-counting in your own calculation.

Working example · One shift and multiple open applications

Simulate a day with orders from various apps and check for overlaps.

Specific next steps

1. In advance, indicate which schedule the time belongs to and when you are available to which employer.
2. Record overlaps and breaks, without double-counting in your own calculation.
3. Keep a single chronological record and export separately for each application.

Limits of application

For a Croatian employment relationship, in accordance with applicable regulations and the contract.
