For: Paušalni obrt · Obrtnici · j.d.o.o. · d.o.o.

Practical business guidance · Reviewed: 2026-11-22

Applicability: According to the profile and circumstances of the described case.

Treat the readable PDF as an account view. For exchange, check the structured document.

When a plan meets an obstacle

Article 36 of the Law on Fiscalisation stipulates that every e-Invoice must comply with the EU standard.

Request the structured output layout and the current specification from the system supplier.

Working example · eInvoice compliance with the EU standard

The supplier sends the accountant a PDF for review and delivers the structured record via the designated channel. The accountant verifies the import of the structured record. Opening the PDF merely confirms that the image is legible.

Specific next steps

1. Article 36 of the Law on Fiscalisation stipulates that every e-Invoice must comply with the EU standard.
2. Request the structured output layout and the current specification from the system supplier.
3. Record which version of the standard and technical specifications applies to your system.

Limits of application

By account type, status and dates of application of the Law.
