When a plan meets an obstacle

Before renting the premises, ask the relevant office for a list of acceptable proofs of use.

Separate the owner's consent, the contract and the address where the work is actually carried out.

Working example · Proof of the company's registered address

Compare the address on the application with the contract and the official space designation.

Specific next steps

1. Before renting the premises, ask the relevant office for a list of acceptable proofs of use.
2. Separate the owner's consent, the contract and the address where the work is actually carried out.
3. Determine who updates the accounts, contracts and website after a change of address.

Limits of application
