Practical business guidance · Reviewed: 2026-11-22

Applicability: According to the profile and circumstances of the described case.

Send the test file through the designated channel and check whether it can be loaded.

Checking by example

Article 36 of the Law on Fiscalisation stipulates that every e-Invoice must comply with the EU standard.

Request the structured output layout and the current specification from the system supplier.

Working example · eInvoice compliance with the EU standard

The supplier sends the accountant a PDF for review and delivers the structured record via the designated channel. The accountant verifies the import of the structured record. Opening the PDF merely confirms that the image is legible.

Specific next steps

1. Article 36 of the Law on Fiscalisation stipulates that every e-Invoice must comply with the EU standard.
2. Request the structured output layout and the current specification from the system supplier.
3. Treat the readable PDF as an account view. For exchange, check the structured document.

Limits of application

By account type, status and dates of application of the Law.
